BURKE EVIDENTLY GUILTY.

The Louisiana Ex-Treasurer Many Times Indicted.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 26.—The grand jury today made a special report on the bank steal. They state the irregularities commenced as far back as 1880. During 1880-81, $930,000 consolidated bonds were exchanged according to law for new 4 per cents, known as constitutional bonds. Notwithstanding the exchange and the positive mandates of the law requiring their immediate cancellation these bonds were retained intact until May 6, 1888, and were used by Treasurer E. A. Burke up to that day for his own private purposes. The total fraudulent bonds put into circulation by Burke amounted to $73,000.

Fifteen or twenty indictments were brought in by the grand jury against Burke, including embezzlement, forgery, etc., and five against other parties, including two against A. W. Cockerton, formerly Major Burke's private secretary. Investigation of the matter of baby bonds is still going on.

ONCE MORE CAPTURED.

Tascott Captured at Philadelphia—Suspicious Almost Confirmed.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 26.—There are no further developments this morning in the case of the man arrested at Reading, Pa., yesterday and brought here to answer the charge of passing forged checks, and whom the detectives believe to be Tascott, the murderer of Millionaire Snell at Chicago. Up to 11 o'clock this morning Chief Detective Wood had received no reply from the Chicago police authorities to his telegram of last night announcing the arrest and stating that the prisoner answered minutely the description of the notorious murderer. Chief Wood said that the prisoner will probably be given a formal hearing later in the day on the charge of forgery. In the meantime the chief awaits advice from the Chicago officials.

In the dispatch sent to the Chicago authorities last night Chief Wood asked if there was anyone here who could identify Tascott. A telegram was received from the chief of police of Chicago, saying that no one in Philadelphia knew Tascott and requesting that a photograph of the man under arrest be mailed at once. He was accordingly photographed and the picture will be mailed tonight. Chief Wood was closeted with the suspected murderer along while today. After a few preliminary questions the young man was asked point blank if he was not Tascott. He is said to have colored perceptibly, and then he denied in a half-hearted sort of way that he was not that notorious person. Since his interview with the prisoner Chief Wood is more than ever convinced that the man is none other than the murderer for whose capture reward of $50,000 is offered.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 26.—Chief of Police Hubbard was shown the associated press dispatch from Philadelphia in regard to the man under arrest there, supposed to be Tascott, the murderer of Millionaire Snell of Chicago. The chief said that he would await the arrival of the photograph of the suspected man which had been mailed, before sending a man to identify the prisoner.

Upon Chief Wood's statement that the man might be wanted on a more serious charge, the magistrate held him in $30,000 bonds. The chief had another long talk with the prisoner, and he again denied that he was the man who had been indicted for the murder of Snell. He declared he will not go to Chicago if he can help it.

BADLY CUT WITH A RAZOR.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 26.—This afternoon John L. Sullivan and a party of followers among whom were Tommy Kelly, the champion feather weight and Tommy Shea made the rounds of the south end saloons, finally hanging up in the barber shop of William Hogarty, 79 Dover street. Shea who was considerably under the influence of liquor, had attempted several times to engage Sullivan in conversation upon matters he did not care to discuss and had been told to desist. After reaching the barber shop, Sullivan seated himself in the chair for a shave, when Shea again began his talk. Kelly then intervened, whereupon Shea made an insulting remark to the former, who quickly seized a razor and with a swinging blow inflicted a terrible wound under Shea's left ear. One John Ryan immediately grabbed Kelly and flung him into the street and raised Shea into a chair and stopped the flow of blood as well as he could. Sullivan walked out of the place, entered a cab and drove away. The police were notified at once and Shea was taken to the hospital. When Kelly was out of the shop, he was advised to give himself up and, acting upon this advice, accompanied by Joe Lannan, he went to Station 5 and surrendered. Kelly was then taken to the hospital and was readily identified by Shea as the man who had assaulted him. Shea's wound is considered extremely dangerous.

MORE FOOTPADS AT WORK.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 26.—Patrick Walsh, a middle aged man, who owns a grocery on Wyoming street near Twentieth, was knocked down and robbed of $600 in money by three late last night while on his way home from a neighboring saloon. Walsh was badly beaten about the head with a club, and is unconscious this morning, his physicians permitting no one to see him. He was intoxicated when the assault occurred. No arrests have been made.

THE CRONIN TRIAL.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 26.—The Cronin trial was resumed at the usual hour this morning. The first witness was County Physician Todd. He testified that only Dr. Egbert, his assistant and himself had the combination on the vault in which the plate with the false teeth taken from Dr. Cronin's mouth were kept. He (Dr. Todd) had not entered the vault, since Dr. Cronin's death. Dr. H. G. Moore, who was present at the autopsy, was called and described the wounds and marks of identification of the body.

After Mr. Moore had testified at great length and minuteness as to the wounds on Dr. Cronin's body, the defense moved to exclude his testimony on the ground that he had read the verbatim report of the trial made by the Associated Press in this morning's papers, which gave the entire testimony of Dr. Egbert.

The next witness was Patrick Dinan, the livery stable keeper. He testified to the facts in regard to the hiring of a horse and buggy from him by Dan Coughlin, one of the prisoners, on the day that Dr. Cronin was murdered substantially as they have heretofore been published. The witness said that Coughlin told him he wanted the horse for a friend. This is the buggy and white horse which carried Dr. Cronin to the Carlson cottage where he was murdered. Dinan continued by saying that a stranger came at about 7 that evening and asked for the horse which Coughlin had hired for him. He was given the white horse. The stranger objected and asked for another but the witness refused to give him another. Then the stranger went to the side curtains of the buggy put on, but Dinan told him it was dark and that no body could recognize him if he wished to be disguised. The stranger grumbled a little but got into the buggy and drove north, or in the direction of Cook's house, where Dr. Cronin lived. The witness had not seen the man since. On the following morning early a policeman came to his stable to know whether or not he had let any one have a white horse the night before. Witness suspected something wrong, went to the police station and there he met Dan Coughlin who cautioned him to say nothing about his (Coughlin's) having hired the horse the day before because it was known he and Cronin were not good friends and it might get him (Coughlin) into trouble.

After a long and severe cross examination of Dinan by Mr. Forrest, of counsel for the defense, in which the witness was not at all confused, the court adjourned until Monday morning.

HORSE THIEVES AT WORK.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

WELLINGTON, Kan., Oct. 26.—Farmers around this city are complaining of the depredations of a gang of horse thieves who, for the past week, have been plying their nefarious trade with the best of success. The victims have finally become so alarmed that definite action was taken last night by the formation of an organization for mutual protection. A committee was appointed who have notified marshals and sheriffs of surrounding towns and counties of the gang and also have sent descriptions of the stolen animals. Last night a fine animal was stolen from a barn on the outskirts of the city. Liberal rewards have been offered both for the apprehension of the thieves and the recovery of the horses.

LAWLESS FEUDS AT DISCOUNT.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 26.—The supreme court today decided a case unprecedented in the history of Tennessee. January Hanley Sutton, a prominent stock buyer of Hancock county was fired upon by men in ambush and killed. Suspicion pointed to John Anderson, John Elshar and Clinton Barnard. They were closely related to each other and a family feud had been long raging between them and the Suttons. The Barnards were arrested and tried in the circuit court of Hancock county on the same indictment, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary. The supreme court confirmed the sentence and they will be hanged on December 23. Hancock county, which adjoins Kentucky, has long been noted for bloody feuds and fatal shooting affrays but the decision today is thought will start a new order of things in the mountains.

GIBLIN'S GUILT CERTAIN.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

PRATT, Kan., Oct. 26.—T. W. Giblin, the defaulting loan agent of Pratt, has been heard from. He has sent back a power of attorney to his brother-in-law and former partner, J. M. Bunnell, to dispose of his property, but it is not known what disposition he will make of it. The instrument was acknowledged before an officer in New York city and it is supposed Giblin is now in Erin, the land of his birth.

A generous public sympathy for Giblin's family formed many possible excuses for his mysterious absence, but now it seems nothing more or less than the old game of using other people's money.

PROVIDENTIAL MISHAP TO VILLAINS.

ROCHESTER, Ind., Oct. 26.—Near this place where the Lake Erie & Western railway track crosses the Chicago & Atlantic company is replacing a wooden structure with an iron bridge, and the bridge builders are putting in a temporary trestle work. Night before last at a late hour residents were awakened by cries for help, and upon going to the trestle work found one man trying to lift a heavy timber which had fallen upon his comrade. Investigation showed that they had tried to remove one of the supports and in this manner the fallen man had been pinned down. The injured man was recognized as a party who had recently served a term for train wrecking, and it is believed they had in view the wreck of one of the passenger trains due in a short time. Both were arrested.

MORE SCANDAL AT JEFFERSON.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 26.—A. F. Charvauaux, an old Frenchman, who has for the past several years been an inmate of the Jefferson asylum, died yesterday at that institution. The certificate of Dr. Bentley, an assistant physician to his death, states that the deceased came to his death from exhaustion and acute mania. There is no reference to certain wounds on the face and neck of the dead man. The body was brought here today. The wife of the deceased, on viewing the remains, demanded that a post mortem examination be held and in accordance with her wishes, the undertaker notified the coroner.

LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 26.—A special says that Sheriff Morris, of Blount county, Ala., with a posse of men cornered Rube Burrows, the outlaw and his gang near Reeds, late evening, and a desperate fight ensued, in which Deputy Sheriff Henry Arderton and citizen Penn Woodward, of the sheriff's posse, were killed. The deceased was born in Ireland and has been a freak for eight years. She was married twice and was the mother of two children.

THE SAN FRANCISCO LAUNCHED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 26.—The new cruiser San Francisco was launched today at the ship yard of the union iron works in this city in the presence of a large crowd of people. The cruiser will not be ready for its trial trip before next spring.

VIEWING UNTUTORED LO.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 26.—The Pan-American excursion train arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning. The delegates had already breakfasted and were driven from the train to the opera house where they were formally welcomed to the city by Senator Allison in an appropriate speech, and by the mayor of the city. They were afterwards shown around the city in carriages. About noon the train was boarded again and the run towards Omaha was begun.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 26.—On the Nebraska plains under a cloudless sky, a general warmth in the air, the southerners today saw for the first time the North American Indian upon his native prairie. Since the starting of the all-American excursion the little Hamlet of Pender, forty miles from Sioux City, has been holding in store a diversion that should prove most interesting up to this point. At high noon the great train stopped beside a little depot on a lone prairie. On one side a hundred or two hardy looking men and women were grouped upon the platform, while in the open space on the other side was pitched a huddle of bronchos saddled and bridled. In the foreground squatting and standing, was a band of Indians from the various tribes, the Winnebagos and the Omahas. The visitors gathered about and studied with curious interest the handful of North American savages before them. Finally a circus was formed about a great drum that was sitting on the earth. Ten braves squatted about it, each with a stick in his hand. The chief lifted his voice in a discordant yell that startled the visitors and the war dance was gone through with. The party had never seen a war dance by North American Indians, and incidentally a subject of frequent comment among the southerners as they lunched and hurried on the train at 3 p. m. landing the party at Florence, five miles out of Omaha. Facing the city the stock yards were visited. Governor Thayer, Senator Paddock and Morris M. Estee, of California, accompanying the party. Afterwards at their hotel the travelers were welcomed by Mayor Brouth. The week's travel was closed by attendance at the theater in the evening.

HERCULEAN STRENGTH.

Continually on the strain, or overtaxed at intervals, is far less desirable than ordinary vigor perpetuated by rational diet and exercise, and prevention from excess. Professional pugilists and athletes rarely attain extreme old age. As ordinary vigor may be retained by a wise regard for sanitary living, and for protection against disease which timely and judicious medication affords, so also it may be lost through prolonged sedentary labor interrupted by mental strain, and foolish eating and drinking, the chief and most immediate sequence of all four being dyspepsia. For this condition, then, or in any way induced, and nerve power, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the prime and most general of remedies. Not only indigestion, but loss of flesh, appetite and sleep are remedied by it. Incipient malaria and rheumatism are banished, and kidney, bowel and liver complaint removed by it.

ACTUAL WAR BETWEEN RAILROADS.

ZANESVILLE, O., Oct. 26.—The Zanesville & Ohio railroad yesterday sent a crew of men to Shawnee Junction, where Shawnee & Muskingum railroad connects with the Zanesville & Ohio railroad. Soon after their arrival a Shawnee & Muskingum railroad locomotive arrived and ran into the depot. No sooner had this been done than the crew from Zanesville sprang on the engine, bound and gagged the engineer and carried him a mile into the country in the woods. They then mounted the engine and came with all speed to this city, "killed" it and locked it in the Zanesville & Ohio round house. After freeing himself the engineer immediately telegraphed the facts to the officials of the road at this city. These officials secured a posse of policemen and went to the Zanesville & Ohio round house, but found that the engine was disabled. When the police started out of the round house they found themselves prisoners. The Zanesville & Ohio employes had locked them in and there they remained for about an hour until the chief of police came round and released them. The trouble arises from the fact that the Shawnee & Muskingum road has been throwing its coal business to the Toledo & Ohio road and not to the Zanesville & Ohio. The Zanesville & Ohio people claim that they furnished the money that paid for the engine and are therefore entitled to it. There is considerable excitement and both roads have a heavy force on guard.

WESTPORT TAKEN IN.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 26.—The proposition to annex to this city the suburb of Westport was voted upon and carried by a large majority. The same proposition carried a few weeks ago, but a second election was necessary on account of a legal irregularity in calling the first.

Cavigler, second grand assistant engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers tendered his resignation to the convention yesterday and that it was accepted. ## MEMPHIS SWITCHMEN STRIKE.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 26.—The local switchmen on the ten railroads entering Memphis went on a strike at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The men have been receiving salaries ranging from $1.50 to $2.25 according to their grade and now demand that their pay be made uniform, the day men to receive $2.50 and the night men $2.70. Everything is quiet about the yards, the freight traffic being nearly suspended.

AWFUL CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS.

FRANKLIN, Pa., Oct. 26.—The bomb explosion at the Galloway school house yesterday by which so many school children were injured, having more serious results than expected. Investigation shows the explosion to be the result of criminal carelessness on the part of two young men who filled a gas pipe with gun powder and allowed the children to play with it. Over thirty children were in close proximity. Eighteen children were injured, several of whom are now in a critical condition, and it is feared that four will die. The men are under arrest.

CENTRALIZING THE OFFICES.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 26.—The auditor's office of the Santa Fe will be removed to this place next week from Boston. This is the first move in the plan of centralizing the working force of the road. The auditor's office of the Chicago line will be removed here from Chicago at the same time.

MUTUAL INSURANCE NOT LIKED.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 26.—E. S. Scott applied to the circuit court for a receiver for the Kansas Protective union of Topeka, a mutual insurance company organized in Hutchinson. Mr. Scott, who is a director in the company, claims that its business is decreasing to such an extent that it is a detriment to stockholders and directors. The decrease is ascribed to popular opposition to the plan of mutual insurance. Judge Guthrie appointed ex-Attorney Bradford as receiver and ordered him to close up the business of the concern within thirty days. Bradford gave bond in $3,000.

The trial created considerable excitement at the time, she being charged with poisoning her husband.
